

BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION
APPOINTED

Pam Fugett (Program Resources) – I am a wife, mother and grandmother. As a member of UMW I served on the Dayton South and Ohio River Valley District Lead Teams (President of the ORV at one time). I have also served on the West Ohio Conference Lead Team and the School of Christian Mission/Mission u leadership teams. I currently serve as Communications Coordinator on the Great Miami River District Lead Team.

Angie Cox (Communications Consultant) – I have served as a United Methodist pastor since 2018 and am currently the pastor of Livingston UMC in Columbus. I received my Master of Divinity degree from Methodist Theological School in Ohio, with a specialization in Ecology and Justice. In addition to my Master of Divinity degree, I also hold a B.S. Ed. in Elementary Education from Ohio University, an M.S. Ed. in Higher Education Administration from Capella University, and an M.A. Ed. in Educational Technology from Teachers College, Columbia University. My wife Annette and I met in college and have been together for more than 25 years. We have two fur kids – a feisty and talkative Siberian Husky named Pax and a Great Pyrenees named Zeke (short for Ezekiel, one of my favorite biblical prophets). We both enjoy gardening, birding, cycling, kayaking and stand-up paddle boarding. I am a technology enthusiast and avid reader and love to travel, both within the US and internationally.

Pam Boh (Charter for Racial Justice Committee) – I am a UWF member in the Olentangy River District. I have been a member of Linworth UMC in Columbus since 2008. I joined UMW/UWF in 2016 and soon after became a co-circle leader. I held that position for two years. I served as President of the Linworth UMW from January 2019 until December 2023. During that time, I was also appointed as Co-Coordinator of Membership Nurture and Outreach for the Capitol Area North District from 2020-2024. In the fall of 2023, I was elected President of the newly-formed Olentangy River District (formerly Capitol Area North and Capitol Area South). This is my first year as District President, and I will continue in this office in 2025. This will be my first time to serve on the Conference Lead Team.

Molly Manring (Committee on Nominations, Class of 2026) – I am a widow and a retired Kindergarten teacher. I attend The First Church of Chillicothe and am a member of United Women in Faith. I served the former Shawnee Valley District as UMW President and Communications Coordinator and have held several other District offices. I am excited to work on the Conference team as a member of the Nominations Committee for the next two years. God bless.

Brenda Coleman (Charter for Racial Justice Committee) – I am a retired Social Studies teacher, mother of two daughters, Alaina and Ashley, and grandmother of one grandson James Arthur. I enjoy adult coloring books and my Nook Reader. I am a member of Richard Chapel UMC in Troy. I am also a member of Troy First UMC UWF where I serve as Secretary of the Executive Committee and Leader of the Susannah Wesley Circle. Currently I am helping to organize the Western Lakes District UWF.

Cecelia Long (Charter for Racial Justice Committee) – I am a native of Virginia but have lived in Dayton for 22 years. I moved to Dayton to work at the General Council on Ministries of the United Methodist Church. I retired from the United Methodist Church as a general agency staff person. I am an active member of Fairview UMC in Dayton. I am President of Church Women in Faith and have served on the Miami Valley District UWF Lead Team and the Friends of Wesley Center for the Miami Valley District UWF.

I am currently volunteering with the Fairview pantry, have chaired the Hospitality Committee for Fairview, and serve on the Church Council as chair of the Staff-Parish Relations Committee. I am also available to help out with most projects planned by Fairview. I am an officer with Church Women United in the Greater Dayton area.

I love to line dance and do word puzzles of all kinds and Sudoku on a frequent basis. I have been in the Miami Valley District Centering Prayer Group which started during COVID and continues to meet via Zoom. My feline companion is Gabby Girl. I pray that God's love, grace and mercy surround all people, no matter their beliefs or their actions.
